An Experience about Sai Kung Outdoor Camp

Jack went to Sai Kung Outdoor Training Camp with his friends last week. On the first day, Jack went rock climbing with Pete and Jim. At first, Jack was scared because he was worried that he might fall off the cliff. Jim started to cheer him up, so did Pete. “There you go, Jack! You can do it!” Jack reached the top with joy.

On the second day, Jack and his friends decided to go for a treasure hunt. They were thrilled because it was their favourite game. They decided to look for the treasure on their own. Jack wandered away from his friends, he couldn't see Pete and Jim anywhere. ‘Oh, I must be lost. What should I do?’ Jack spoke to himself nervously. Just then, Jack heard Jim shouting, ‘Come over here, Jack. We found it, the treasure box!’ Jack ran to the sound at once! It was a full box of chocolate! ‘Yay, we love treasure hunting!’ The boys laughed with excitement.
