Mark and the Greedy Monster

Once upon a time, there was a village called the Happy Village and there was a villager called Mark. Everyone in the village thought he was as strong as an ox. Three children saw Mark and they said, “Mark is the strongest man in the village. He can lift heavy things such as a tree, a rock and a lion.”

One day, a monster came to the village. The villagers were very scared. A woman found Mark and said “The monster is sleeping in the cave now. Can you let it leave the village?” “Let me try.” Said Mark. He went to the cave and found the monster. The monster shouted at him. He was terrified.

Suddenly, a cupcake fell out from Mark’s bag. The monster loved the cupcakes very much. Mark thought of an idea. He took out some cupcakes that he bought before and put it on the road. The monster followed the cupcakes and left the village.

The villagers were thankful to Mark. He became the most popular person in the village.
