The Squirrel and the Peacock

Once upon a time, squirrel and peacock were good friends. They lived in the forest. The peacock had beautiful feathers on her tail and she was so proud of it. She sang and danced all day, but she didn't work. The squirrel was small, but he was hard-working. He kept finding and storing nuts from spring to autumn.

One day, snow fell from the sky and winter came. The peacock was cold, hungry and lonely. She hid inside her cave. She missed her friend, squirrel very much.

The squirrel started to worry about peacock because he didn't hear her beautiful singing voice. Later, the squirrel brought some nuts and looked for the peacock. When they met, the peacock felt so touched and ashamed. She promised to work hard and find food with the squirrel next spring.
