A Terrible Day

Yesterday, when I woke up, I found my body was quite painful; however, I was not sure that I was sick, so I checked my temperature immediately. "Oh, it is 40 Celsius degree!" I had a serious fever.

My mum took me to the emergency room. After waiting for a while, it was my turn to see the doctor. Dr Chan told me to drink more water, rest in bed more often and take pills. Then he also told me not to eat any junk food. I waited until the pills were ready. The nurse told me to take the medicine three times a day.

When I went back home, I just felt like I was extremely exhausted. Having a fever made me so tired. I am sad and regretful for not having enough sleep and balanced diet before.
