On Saturday, Little Mickey went to school because he attended a basketball lesson. Little Mickey saw an old man falling on the ground, so he ran to the old man quickly. Then he took the old man to the hospital. The principal saw what he has done. He praised Little Mickey that he is a good boy. He was very happy!

On Sunday, Little Mickey stayed at home with his mother. He said that he tried his best to study hard. His mother said that he was a good boy and took him to an ice cream shop to buy food. He decided to listen to his mother and make her happy.
